“ First off we'd like to say thank you to those who were able to join us for Bill's Celebration of Life and to those that were not able to attend you were missed. It was a beautiful afternoon being able to spend time with everyone and Bill would have loved knowing how much he is being missed.

I had setup this video to share while we were there but there was so much going on that I know most missed it. So I wanted to share it with you now. Unfortunately. I know there are many more pictures that are still in storage in Arizona that we were not able to include at this time but, I wanted to thank those that were able to share what they had.

Please feel free to share with those I may have missed.

And thank you again for being there and sharing your stories with us. He is truly missed !
