

Alva Odell Priest

July 21, 1937 - January 16, 2026

Alva Odell Priest, 88, of Foreman, Arkansas passed away on January 16, 2026. Odell was born July 21, 1937 to Guss Priest and Lucille Powers Priest on a small farm on Waldrop Lateral, Arkansas. He was the oldest of four children from this marriage. Odell had seven step-siblings and three half-siblings, resulting in a large extended family.

He enlisted in the United States Marine Corp at the age of sixteen; however, after a medical discharge, he returned to home to complete his education, graduating from Foreman High School in 1959 with a diploma.

His career choices were as varied as his hobbies and included cook/chef, bartender, ranch hand(cowboy), rodeo clown, tree trimmer, crop duster, boat builder, business owner, sawmill operator in Belize, South America and truck driver for multiple companies before retiring from Ruan in Foreman, Arkansas. Odell is survived by the family of his long-time friend and beloved companion, Mable Rae Jones. This includes her daughter, Sue Jones Watkins of Fouke, Arkansas, and children; Kristi and Bubba Watkins; Gina and Rodney Watkins; and Misty Watkins all of Fouke Arkansas.

Surviving family members are three sisters; Pernica Foley of Greenville, Texas; Fay Armstrong of Mesquite, Texas and Judy Priest of Texarkana, Arkansas; step-sister, Vertie M. Arney of Lubbock, Texas; step sister-in-law, Ann Stone of New Boston, Texas. There were no children; however, numerous nieces, nephews and cousins including:
