

Amy Jean Redfearn

October 28, 1941 - February 21, 2015

Amy Jean Dudley Redfearn

Amy Jean Dudley Redfearn was born October 28th, 1941 at her home in Red Bluff, Arkansas. She was the youngest of three children. She had a happy childhood playing with her siblings and friends. They would play in play houses made out of boards, swam in the river every Sunday, and generally amused themselves.

Amy moved to Dallas, Texas in her early 20's and met her husband at a neighborhood party. Amy Jean and CJ (Hoss) Redfearn married February 26, 1964. They lived in Garland, Texas and had four boys. Just after the last boy was born, the Redfearn Family moved back to Red Bluff, Arkansas.

After moving back to Arkansas, Amy Jean spent her time taking care of her family and raised her four rambunctious boys. She was a BIG animal and nature lover. Amy Jean was also a member of the Jefferson Chapter #554, order of the Eastern Star where she served as Worthy Matron and Secretary for a number of years. She loved to cook and Sunday Dinners were big with those Amy called family. She was especially known for her pound cake.

Amy Jean has always been very big into church and was known for her singing. She had a lovely voice and would often sing solos or in the Choir. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Ashdown.

Amy Jean thought the best of everyone she met and was thought highly of everyone. Amy Jean loved her parents, siblings, kids, nieces and nephews, grandkids and all she met.

Amy is survived by her husband CJ (Hoss) Redfearn, Arthur and Mamie Anne (sister) Atkinson, Jill Dudley (sister-in-law)

Children: James and Melissa Redfearn, Philip and Chrystal Redfearn, Richard and Dawn Redfearn and Wes Redfearn.

Grandchildren: Amy Elizabeth, Bradley, Hannah, Cecil Jacob, Lillian, Colton, Callie, and Chance Redfearn;

Numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial Services will be held Saturday February 28, 2015 at 2:00 pm at First Baptist Church in Ashdown, AR. Arrangements are under the direction of Madden Funeral Home.

“ Amy really loved the wildlife that was always around. My husband brought home a baby raccoon. Well needless to say he was more than we could handle as he grew. Amy agreed to take it. Thank god. She just loved that kind of thing. I will be forever grateful that she took him. But I think after raising four boys. She still needed a challenge. Rest in peace Amy Jean.

I know your family will miss you but Jt will have another loved one with him.

“ Miss Amy adopted our family, mostly our daughter Elyse, when we moved to Ashdown in 1985. We met her through her son James who had worked at Ashdown Veterinary Clinic, prior to our purchasing it. When Elyse became sick in December of that year, Miss Amy came to the hospital and announced that she would take care of Elyse, she did not want her to go back to daycare. And she not only took care of Elyse until she went to school, lots of evening when we went to pick Elyse up she fed us supper, too. She was a wonderful cook. One of her kitchen tricks we still use to this day if she needed bread to rise in a hurry, she put the pans on the dash of a closed vehicle sitting in the sun. As the local veterinarian, she was always asking Mike to look at one of her critters, tame or wild. Miss Amy taught us through her example of kindness and compassion. She made everyone around her a better person.
