“ I'll never forget the story she told at the pageant this year about her daddy catching her watch that movie he forbade her to see. Halfway through the movie she looked up and saw her great big daddy standing over her and she knew she was in for it! Little did he know this was not her first time going to see that movie. I was laughing so hard. She had a great sense of humour and knew how to make a room full of people light up. She will be greatly missed by her neighbors, friends and myself. Prayers for the family.
