“ I couldn't help but shed tears when my wife, Carrol, read to me Angie's FB post telling of her Dad's passing to be with the Savior and Lord that he loved so much & told so many people about. We have known Ben, Mary, Angie, & Neisha since they lived in Tecumseh, OK many years ago and Ben was an officer on the Tecumseh Police Dept. We attended the same church & Ben and I were leaders of the Royal Rangers Boy's group. As such, we had much fun and many adventures on camp outs, canoe float trips, etc. Being 78 years old myself, I have known many good people and had many close friends, but through the years, I have always considered Ben House to be my best friend. The greatest regret I have is not having been able to spend more time with him (such as on Millwood Lake).

*Ben, I know you are already enjoying Heaven and being with your Savior & Lord. I will see you again one day MY GOOD FRIEND.
