“ Bobby was full of life and loved everyone. He loved having his crawfish boils and always wanted his family and friends over to share good times.. and he loved his country music! I remember he'd pull his truck around in the backyard and open up the doors and play the radio while we sat around the firepit..

To my baby brother Bobby dale burk,I know you are in the hands of our lord and savior Jesus and his father our God. You will be missed, I did the best of my self taking care of you and sisters while we was growing up in life know I iask you to say hello to our sister Melissa who is in heaven now as your are. Now I am asking you to watch over us until we join you in heaven. I love you and you will always be in my heart.
