“Buddy (Browder) Johnson was our most special friend. He always greeted us at their home by holding up his arms as shown in the picture above...then giving us such amazing hugs! Buddy's humor, kindness, wisdom, Christian caring for everyone who needed something to help them in their lives, and love that he shared with us...and everyone he knew, will be remembered by all who love him. He and Shirley have been our friends for 50 years and our love for him cannot be diminished by his passing into the arms of his Most Wonderful Lord and Savior. We are so thankful that we had so many years to share with Buddy and we pray for the Lord's Blessing and Grace upon Shirley and their family.

“ It was an honor to have the oppportunity to take care of Mr. Browder. Seeing him and his wife was always a pleasure. They both were all smiles. Mrs. Browder, please keep your faith in God and remember the good times, the good days and the first time you met him. Smile...God's Grace will provide you with peace. My God be with you now and always.
