“ Sending many prayers to Mrs. Portwood's family during this difficult time. I am heartbroken as Mrs. Portwood was dear to me. I got to know her during the time I worked at Pleasant Manor! I always loved sitting and talking with her. She always bragged about her family whom she loved dearly and was so proud of each of you. She may not have been the most phone savvy, as I got to learn a lot about that huge Samsung she had (I didn't mind a bit, and loved the talks we had while I fixed it), but she sure was a very smart, talented and crafty woman! She was always showing us the different things she had made, and even made us some things as well. She was caring and thoughtful, but also a strong willed lady that would speak her mind, and I loved that about her. If there was ever a problem, she would address it, whether it be standing up for herself or someone else. She was a truly caring person, someone you couldn't help but Love! She was one of the residents I have missed the most since leaving Pleasant Manor, and I regret not going back up there to visit. It may not have been our usual conversations, or me admiring her collection of Elephants that she dearly loved (and had a story for each one), but I did keep up with her on facebook. Heaven gained a beautiful Angel and we all will one day see her again. To her family, who meant everything to her, I pray that God wraps his arms around you and gives you strength and peace, as that is what Mrs. Portwood would want most. May God Bless you all.
