“Christine is right at home with the angels. She was an earth angel who embraced each of us with her loving open arms always welcoming us into her home. "You girls come back now!"

Her delightful smile, generosity, and love started each day's visit in her loving, country home full of so many memories. And, of course, no one would go hungry! One of Deb's favorites was always her home-grown tomatoes sitting on the window sill above the sink in the kitchen. And, of course, we can't forget those wonderful living room conversations that would go on hour after hour with Becca, Dwight and/or Gary popping in. And the memories go on and on of years passing.

Yes, we will miss Christine as we venture through Arkansas but we know as you shared with us that you lived a full life and you were ready to go home. Say hi to everyone for us, especially Anne B and Harry! We love you Christine!
