“ Hello family of this young lady, I am very sorry for Your loss. I know I did not know her that well, I have seen her in school before. I remember doing plays and I know I hate that I have to hear some one I heard from school is gone. She is with the Lord now, having a great time. I will miss her.

“ I well remember Courtney. I taught her in fourth grade. She was a great student. I enjoyed having her in my classroom. This sweet beautiful child turned into an amazing, beautiful woman. I am so sorry to hear of the accident that took her life on earth. Like others, her beautiful voice is heard in God's choir today. I also had her brother in my class. So, I enjoyed working with Darla in homeroom activities. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all. Our loss is Heaven's gain. May God's love and the love of friends comfort you today and in the days ahead.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Courtney through Sweet Adelines. She certainly was quite the performer and her personality would shine and light up the stage when she was singing. She will certainly be missed by all of her singing sisters and all of those whose lives she touched. Your light on earth went out too soon, Courtney. Now it is time for you to shine among the stars. Rest well.
