

Cupid Dawn Stevens

April 11, 1928 - October 12, 2024

Cupid Dawn Stevens of Christian faith departed this life on Oct. 12, 2024. She was born April 11, 1928 in Ida, Louisiana to Una Westmoreland Mitchell and Guy Mitchell. She lived most of her life in Texarkana and passed away in Ashdown, AR at Pleasant Manor Nursing Home. She attended Arkansas High School, graduating in 1946 and Texarkana College in 1948. She married Floyd M. Stevens upon his return in 1949 from serving as a Captain in the U.S. Army. Together they had one son, Stan who married Gayla Graves and one daughter Kim who married Richard Clark Jr. Other survivors include her granddaughter Emily Clark Bennett and Anthony, one grandson Richard Clark III and Katie, three great grandsons, Seger Hagood, Richard Clark IV and Louie Clark.

In respecting her wishes Cupid will be honored with cremation under the direction of Madden Funeral Home. Her remains will be interred at Olive Branch Cemetery, Doddridge, AR in a private memorial. Cupid was a friend to many and loved by all.

Tribute Wall

TB

“Cupid was such a nice, kind and fun lady. As a teenager, I of course shopped at her boutique. As an adult, she dated a friend of mine's father and I got to hang out with her in Dallas quite often. She was a classy lady who always looked great and had a great sense of humor. Cupid will be missed.

Theresa Thomas Bailey

Theresa Thomas Bailey - October 17, 2024 at 03:32 PM