“ I remember when Tiffany and I were little kids and Papa use to let us sit in his lap and drive. When we would see a turtle he would stop and let us pick them up. One day we had found one and we went over to Grandma Ruth's house, and Papa told me not to stick my finger in its mouth because it would bite and wouldn't let go until lighting struck, but I did it anyways, and ended up getting bit!! I miss you so much!!

“ I am so sorry to hear the news. I always thought alot of Curtis. One memory I have of him was he saw me at the chicken house one day . I was working getting ready for them to pick chickens up and he just jumped in and starting helping me raise the feeders that day. I was so tired and by myself that day and was so grateful for the help. I tried to pay him and he would not hear of it. I know you will miss him. Love Nova
