“ My most favorite memories as a child are my times at Arden. I loved to come to Lige and Modine's house. David reminded me of his dad Lige. Quite and gentle. He grew up in a home with much love. God blessed him with a beautiful wife Glenda who had to depart this life way too soon and 3 precious children. This is but a temporary separation. We will see you again David and next time will be for all eternity.t

“ David had such a sweet and kind spirit within. David, his three sisters and I played together when I lived with my Grandmother at Arden. David always let us decide the choice of games. We also attended the little church together in Arden. I hadn't seen David in many years after leaving Arkansas but was so blessed to see him one more time at the Senior Center in Arden a couple of years ago.

His presence will be missed here on earth but there will be great rejoicing in Heaven.

“ I will never forget David and his sweet smile and gentle personality. I always loved being around him. He was a man of few words, so we girl cousins got to talk up a storm around him. One night my sister Doris, David, and I were spending the night at Granny's. David recently reminded me that we girls talked and giggled all night and he never did get any sleep. I appreciate David's service to our country and his dedication to his family. I know he very much loved his wife Glenda and his mother, Modene, and David was very good to both of them. Diabetes is a treacherous disease but David is now healed of all his afflictions and in the everlasting arms of the One who has created him for eternity. Heaven is affording David a wonderful family reunion with his wife, father, brothers, and grandparents, and for this I am forever grateful.
