“ I remember Diana was always the nicest person in HS, stopping by my house to visit me and see my parents. She came to mind late last year, and I Google searched her to hopefully find and reach out to her to let her know I always have remembered her and hoping to reestablish a long-ago friendship. I am so very sorry to hear of her passing. She was a beautiful, kind soul. Peace and love to her family and friends. Julie Mcallister (Singleton)

“ *To the Dunn Family,
So sorry to hear of Diane transitioning. Memories of laughter, great conversations, saying how much you love each other and hugs are all a part of living. Once a love one is gone then you can have peace knowing that they are resting in Gods arms.
May God bless you with peace during this difficult time.
