

Dorris Conley

August 2, 1927 - January 11, 2019

Dorris Conley was a force of nature and trailblazer. She was mother to two daughters, Janet and Lynne, who she taught to be kind and strong. She was grandmother to a granddaughter, Stacey, and two grandsons, Justin and Wade, who she taught to fish and walk on stilts. She was wife to the late James who proposed via telegram and who she married in Norfolk, VA during the war. Her son-in-law, Mike, was her favorite. Her great grandsons, Tristan, Aidan and Ryan were the greatest joys of her life.

During her life, Mrs. Conley had a keen sense of adventure and a well-developed talent in piddling. She was a painter, storyteller and Navy-wife. She believed profoundly in a fair shake for every individual and second chances. Mrs. Conley was born on August 2, 1927 to Callie and Bessie Baker. She was a yellow dog Democrat from the start. Having passed on January 11, 2019, with such a life well lived, she will only miss being able to vote in the next election.

Graveside services will be Monday, January 14, 2019 at 10:00 at Blackerby Cemetery with Jim Cross officiating
