“ My mother Russell, my heart is in a million pieces, they are now words to express my loss of you. What a Woman of God with tremendous grace and compassion you were. I believe in Angels and I saw one in you and all you did for Our Lord Jesus Christ. You work here has end and you have gone on to great rewards. No doubt in my mind you've made it in with your Savior. You loved the Lord dearly, and had exemplified Him in everything you did in this life. Your selfless life and being available for and too the work of the Lord has left an imprint on so many lives. My life has taken the shape it has because God placed you in it. Your confidence in your God to take care of you was always steady and consistent. Your commitment to The Word of God and study was very rare but that was your greatest joy. Your integrity and credibility are weighed heavily in the earth in your absence. Truly, well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord. Though I will miss your counsel, vast wisdom andost of all your prayers; I confident you are were you always wanted to be, at the feet of Jesus Christ. Mama Russ, I salute you Woman of God and I honor your life with saying Thank you for being a vessel of total use to the service of your God. Until meet mother Russ, I will always love you. Minister Cheryl Row, Calgary AB Canada.
