Auntie I will miss your phone calls especially when you would call me and ask me to pray for you what a privilege it was to pray for you. You loved God and your family and anyone who knew you knew it. You got to hear those words “well done my good and faithful servant” hug my momma for me and the rest of the family and tell them I love and miss them. I’m so glad we will all be together again one day. I love you.

“ Evelyn Caver, you were one of the most kindhearted ladies I have known. Your sweetness, your friendliness, your genuine care will be missed.

Paula, Dawn, Julie, Brad and grands my heart hurts for you and my prayers are for the Lord to comfort your broken hearts. We all can rejoice together with Evelyn as we know that last breath was her first breath into the Glories of the Lord. What a blessing to know. Prayers and thoughts as you go forth in the journey before you.
