“ My cousin, Evelyn was a strong determined and intelligent woman who didn't have a pretentious bone in her body. She dealt with a good many trials and tribulations throughout her adult life, but she seem to tackle them with a great deal of inner strength, keeping a positive attitude. I would sometimes wonder how she kept from completely falling apart when faced with the loss of her loving husband then being diagnosed with cancer numerous times. But, I knew Evelyn had deep faith in the Almighty God and trusted Him to give her strength and comfort beyond what is normal. Evelyn fought the fine fight. She successfully completed the race for everlasting life. Thank you God for creating such a sweet person, cousin, sister, daughter, mother, grandmother and friend. Love you always.

“ Evelyn was more than a step mom to me. She was a friend, a good friend. We saw each other in a different light than most. We always would reach out to each other in good and bad times. She mad my dad a happy man. Which I'll never be able to say thank you enough. She is flying high with the angels, with her horses and pups and any other critter that will have her. She was an amazing woman, full of love and grace. I'll always remember her smile and charm. She became part of the family after my mom passed and has always been there for me since. My prayers for Mac, Josh and Jared. She loved you guys more than you'll ever realize. She will be missed and I will always cherish what we had. She knew the truth and the light.
