“ For those that knew Mrs. Duke, we know that our loss is Heaven's gain. "Well done, thy good and faithful servant." were the first words she heard as she entered Heaven. Her life was example of following the greatest example the world has ever known, Jesus Christ. When you met her, you met Jesus. The last time I visited her in Ashdown, we had a wonderful time remembering the events of my life. More importantly, I was able to tell her before she passed away how much she meant to me and my family. We will never know this side of Heaven the lives she touched and led to the Lord. I know my parents are having a wonderful time rejoicing with her and worshipping our Lord. Many of us have been blessed by this wonderful servant of God. My thoughts and prayers go to the family.

“ Ms. Duke:

I will always remember you. You were the one that talked to me about the Lord when I was 13 and was saved and baptised at First Baptist Church in Ashdown about 32 years ago. I thank you for sharing the Lord with me it truly changed my life. You will never be forgotten. God bless your family
