Visitation will be Saturday, July 1, 2023 from 2:00 – 4:00 at Madden Funeral Home Chapel in Foreman, AR.

To know our dear beautiful Flossie (Baby, Momma, Nana, Sister, Aunt Floss, and Friend) was to know strength and love. She was the epitome of selflessness always caring for others and putting others first. Her unconditional love for her family was undeniable. Her sacrifices and dedication to us all will never be forgotten, and we are forever grateful. Now go peacefully to the Lord, and we pray to meet you there someday.

“ Hunting for prize eggs at Easter, cooking salted pecans on her green bar stools at her kitchen island, busting through the swinging door to the laundry room to go play 1000 times, and Christmas Santa exchange game on her pool table will always be special memories of mine. Aunt Flos was one in a million. Always kind and loving to me. I'll cherish the memories she gave me in my Childhood. She took the simple things and made them special. She would get the old marching Santa out with the drums clanging to start Christmas morning tradition started down the hallway. Oh, what a joyful celebration in heaven it will be for Aunt Flos because she lived a life worth celebrating on earth. Rejoicing for eternity.

*Flossie was a dear friend to me .
I will forever remember she & Lenwood bringing me a sack of pecans each Christmas. A lady that all people loved.*

“ Flossie was a second mother to me. She will be so miss. I still use her enchilada recipe she taught me how to make so many years ago. Thought and prayers go out to the family. Love y'all. Becky
