

Frances Sue Lasater Hollinger

December 29, 1932 - December 3, 2020

Frances Sue Lasater Hollinger, 87, of Foreman, AR passed away December 3, 2020 in a local hospital. She was born December 29, 1932 in Mathis, TX to the late William Edwin and Susan Emma(Freeland) Lasater. She was a Baptist. Mrs. Hollinger worked, for years, as an executive secretary in multiple air bases in Texas and as well as one in California. She enjoyed sewing and cooking. She is preceded in death by her husband, Lewis Hollinger, three brothers and four sisters.

Survivors include one son, Jim Webb of Amarillo, TX, four daughters and two sons-in-law, Kathy and Danny Marler of Horatio, AR, Andrea Singleton of Foreman, Tina and Lee Carrell of Foreman and Cecilia Potts of Foreman, one brother, Frank Lasater of Mathis, TX, ten grandchildren, Jeff Marler, Bryce Marler, Tessa Brecheisen, Bryan Carrell, Richard Carrell, Jade Lake, Jillian Webb, Jensen Webb, Laken Potts and Corben Potts and seventeen great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be Saturday, December 5, 2020 at 11:00 at Dollarhide Cemetery with her grandson, Bryan Carrell, officiating.

Mrs. Hollinger will always be remembered as a great and precious mother.

Cemetery Details

Dollarhide Cemetery

1187 LR 78
Foreman, AR 71836

Previous Events

Graveside Service

DEC 5. 11:00 AM (CT)

Dollarhide Cemetery
1187 LR 78
Foreman, AR 71836

Tribute Wall

“ Frances Sue Lasater Hollinger

October 08, 2023 at 02:47 PM

“ I'll never forget my mom and Francis sitting on the picnic bench, drinking a beer after Jim and i were married. My mom got up off the bench sending Francis flying to to the ground. We all laughed until we cried. Loved her so much, she was so kind and such a strong female presence. She has left a great legacy behind, with all her children and grandchildren. Janice Stafford

Janice Stafford - December 05, 2020 at 05:32 PM