“ Gail when I first moved to Ashdown you and Sherry were friendly and kind to this stranger. Over the years we lost touch, but I never forgot your kindness. To this day I wish I had the ability to tell jokes as well as you.

The main thing I remember is your love for Jesus. Rest i Peace, my friend.

“ It is hard for me to find the words to express adequately what is felt at times such as this. Uncle Gail will always be apart of my childhood memories. Especially the times we were all able get together, whether it was in Alice for the holidays or that odd week during the summer when we would meet at the lake house or later at MaMa Jo and PawPu's house in Leakey and all the reunion times. What ever the time, Uncle Gail always made me laugh and smile. Ya'll know how he would cut up..... and the duck voice he would do....that was always one of my favorites. That is how I will remember him. As much as I am saddened by his passing, I know you guys miss him all the more for what he meant to each of you. I know ya'll feel the loss more deeply. I pray for your comfort and that ya'll find peace in this time of loss.

But I know where he's at & I am gonna hang out with him again.....and i am gonna smile to hear a corny joke and that crazy duck voice again!

I Love Every One of ya'll: Aunt Sherry, Tim, Ryan and Blair

“ Uncle Gail, you touched my life early and in big ways. Your unconditional love and your willingness to spend time with me are not only precious memories but cornerstones in the foundation of my life. You NEVER hurt me, jokingly or otherwise, even during those countless hunting, fishing and just goofing off with your bow and arrows.
your strength, love and compassion through Daddys last days in 2012 carried me into and through 2013. Thank you, i love you, and oh what a time we will have when we meet again in our Fathers mansions, kenny Lovewell “ Gail was one of a kind. During the years you have all been my friend and there are so many things I will never forget. Gail told me one time he thought he had married the most beautiful woman he had ever seen, and he said "I still have never seen one that was prettier than she is." I am praying for all of you.

“ I remember the time Gail and Sherry came to the reunion at Jody & Hugh's on the river at Leakey. He sat for hours and painted the most unique things on the river rock. We still have some. You could tell he really enjoyed doing it.

Sherry, you and all your family are in our thoughts and prayers
