“ I still miss my Daddy so very much we have always been so close. Others may take things away from me. But one thing no one can ever take away is my memories and the fun I had growing up with him being my dad. We would laugh so hard we would both be in tears. Going to the races with him when I was 5yrs till I was grown. This was so fun, I would make us a lunch to take to the Drag races and he would have coffee and he would buy me a hot chocolate. There are so many great times we had. I will never forget him I think of him so many times every day and pray every night for him, and talk to him too. I Love You Daddy! You will always be my Valentine.
