“ I’m forever grateful and thankful of Spider Young. I can honestly say that I’ve known him my entire life. At six years of age I would wake early Saturday morning and walk over to his farm to “make money” we would sit and drink sodas all day. I will cherish and miss the conversations we would have alongside those bottom roads. Rest In Peace My Friend.

“ Spider will be missed by all who knew him. He was a do it yourself kind of guy. He and Dennis were pretty close as cousins can be.. Spider had a fun living personality. And I will add that he would definitely let the funeral home know that his birthday is August 6 not July! RIP Spiderman

Mr. Young, I will truly miss you. When you'd come to my office, we laugh so hard you'd think there was a room full of people inside, but it would be just you and me. I will cherish the memories! You are a remarkable man and will be missed, dearly. 🕊️

“ I always enjoyed the time I spent with Madge and Glen. I enjoyed times of visiting with Gene and Mae Deal too. Sometimes, Ray and I were together with all of them for a day or two. I don't think I ever heard Madge call Glen by his nickname, "Spider". I did laugh when Madge wanted to get his attention and called him Glen Thomas in a slightly louder voice than usual. Now, Glen Thomas! Visiting Madge and Glen and Gene and Mae was like visiting my maternal grandparents when I was a little child. Some fun and good-natured kidding but never any drama. I know they are welcoming "Spider", Glen Thomas Young.
