“ I consider myself being very blessed being able to call Sue my friend over the last few years. I am so sorry for your loss but I know that God needed an angel like Sue. She was such a joy to be around and I will never forget the joy I had being around her. Remember she will always be with you. She loved her family with all heart and was proud of each of you. My heart felt sympathy is with each one of you through this difficult time. Vicki
