

Hugh "Boo" Taylor

August 1, 1958 - March 30, 2024

Melvert Hugh "Boo" Taylor, 65, of Ashdown, AR passed away unexpectedly on March 30, 2024 at St. Michael's Hospital with his family waiting for him to get through surgery. Although God peacefully gave him wings to fly, our hearts were not ready. Hugh was born to Hugh and Rachel (Johnson) Taylor on August 1, 1958 in Port St. Joe, FL. He lived in Georgie, FL before he eventually found his home town of Ashdown. Boo graduated Ashdown High School in 1976. He went to work for Nakoosa Paper Mill where he worked many days and nights. He also worked for the Ashdown City Park and enjoyed spending time there for any reason. He is preceded in death by his parents and wife, Sheryl Taylor.

Survivors include one son, Jarrod Taylor of Ashdown, one daughter, Lindsay Taylor of Texarkana, TX, one granddaughter, Klara Hoover of Texarkana, TX, two step-children, Ryan Chavez and Neelie Young, both of Ashdown, two step-grandchildren, Allie and Nate Castle and three sisters, Pam Dunn of Georgia, Gaye Black of Ashdown and Jenny Purtle of Mississippi.

Hugh "Boo" will be remembered for being fun and making people laugh and always being full of "it". He was a wonderful dad who loved his family and friends, spending as much time as possible with them, and of course, fishing. He will truly be missed by all who knew him. He was loved and cherished by many.

A memorial service will be planned at a later date.

“ We will miss seeing and visiting with Boo at Yarborough Landing while fishing with Jarrod. He asked me to pray for his sister and seemed to always think of others when he needed prayers for himself. May the Lord hold you all close and carry you when you are too weak to walk. Praying for peace and strength. We love you and are here if you need us.
