“ He is my best friend. I worked with him hose leveling an at the bullfrog restraint.i couldBe myself with Jackie.he always took up for me. .and help me through hard times.he never browbeat me .never. Lied to me.he never said any thing about me or to me.heAlways thanked us after work telling us we had did a good job an he appreciated us.he was strict but Avery gentle man a very big heart. Even on bad days. Wed get stressed out or really tired.but it was like water off s ducks back we was all happy by the end of the day. I miss him so much !! love him dearly!!!! I always thought he would be around For a long time.....there's so many memories.i miss his smile his jokes an his opinion On things his advice an are little fussing now an then.i miss his voice .I miss every thing about Jackie he's my very best friend .there will never be another like him.the sweetestMan I ever knew.he was the only man to tell me he was proud of me.i would do my best not to let him down.an he never let et me down.as long as I've known him.im missing every second of every day. I know he's not suffering anymore.but I wished he hadn't got sick.i think of him all the time.it didn't seem he's been gone this long. I love you Hyde

“ I remember him as funny, hardworking and devoted to family and friends. He love his daughter Sharon and I sure he loved all his children and his wife. I know he will surely be missed. There is a song that states "if you could see me now, walking streets of god. No more suffering no more pain, healed by Jesus as only He can"
