“ I still tell stories about James, as my partner on a 911 Ambulance. We got to deliver a baby, and saw things not a lot of folks would want to. I always respected his love for his son, reverence for animals, and his razor sharp wit. We bonded quickly out of roasting each other during long weekend EMS shifts. And true to form, I always told him if he caught wild game while hunting, I'd cook it and clean the kitchen if he'd bring it to work! And he did. I miss you James, we had some great times! ~Hannah Rae
