“ Susan and I would like to offer our sincere and deepest condolences on the passing of our beloved Uncle J.C. Aunt Nellie and J.C. were and are deeply loved by us, as they were by my parents also. There are so many memories going back through the years that I could not even hope to retell all of them. He always made me laugh. One of my favorite memories was hearing the story of him turning the gypsum truck over in front of Miss Malissa's house, our next door neighbor in the country. She told me that when she heard all of the commotion right in front of her house she walked outside to see a terrible sight of utter destruction. And out of the cloud of road dirt, smoke, and gypsum dust walked J.C. Unharmd and in Miss Malissa's words "looking just like an angel walking out of the clouds". Covered in white dust as she described it. Now he has gone on and surely is one of those angels that Miss Malissa described. We will surely miss him. Love, Ross and Susan Lamb.
