“ My Precious Cousin Darlene, my heart is broken for you, as you and your family grieve the loss of your dear husband, father and grandfather. I remember when you and Jerry were young and in love. It was so exciting for me to witness. Mike was in Vietnam and I was living in Ashdown. On occasion you would stay with me, and I loved every minute of it. You were so good to me in my hour of need while Mike was away. You and Jerry were just so in love and so gorgeous together. I pray you will always be able to thank God for the good times He gave you, and to remember there is no better place to be than in the everlasting arms of the One who has created us for all eternity. And to be with Chad will be the icing on the cake for Jerry. Love you and pray for you always, Cousin Carolyn Terrill

“ While I will share multiple memories of my cousin on Wednesday, I just want the family and friends to know that, because I am an only brat, that Jerry was the closest I had to a brother. Ever since I was informed of his heavenly promotion Sunday evening, I have recounted memory after memory. Karen's and my prayers are for Darlene, Jason, Missy and their families to experience the peace that transcends human understanding as they face the days ahead of Jerry's absence.
