“ I shared many happy memories at the Day house as a teen. I grew up around the corner from the Days, and ran with Vicki, many times enjoying a taste of Jerry's cooking. He had a contagious smile and laughter and a great hug. Years later, my mom cleaned his house, taking my youngest son, Matthew with her. Jerry always had a bowl of candy waiting for him and a handful always left when he went. Jerry also helped my family find many good used cars in the past. Ben Lomond will surely miss one of it's homegrown boys.
