

Joan LaVelle Moon

March 31, 1950 - August 2, 2023

Joan LaVelle Moon, age 73, of Ashdown, Arkansas, passed peacefully at her home August 2, 2023. Joan was born March 31, 1950, in Sweet Home, Oregon, to Gilbert and Jo Whisenhunt Bacorn.

Joan was a 1968 graduate of Broken Bow High School. She loved attending her class reunions and visiting with classmates. Joan married the love of her life John Moon, November 18, 1968, in Paris, Texas. Joan was a member of the Oak Grove Baptist Church. Joan and John moved to Ashdown, Arkansas in 1970, where they raised their two children Todd and Teresa. Joan and John operated a poultry farm and ranch in the Ashdown area. Joan loved to sew, garden, cook, care for her animals, camp, collect trinkets, and most of all spend time with family. Joan was a very talented seamstress having fashioned Teresa's wedding dress, sewing much by hand taking nine months to complete. Joan embroidered, crocheted or quilted many quilts for her children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other family members and friends. Joan's biggest treasure was her family. She loved spending time with her children and grandchildren, going to ball games, dances recitals, band performances or just visiting. She always had the last words when speaking with family; "love you more".

Joan is survived by her husband of 54 years, John Moon; son, Todd and wife Melissa Moon, Ashdown, daughter Teresa and husband Brian Greeson, Ashdown. Three grandchildren, Cortnie and Skylar Parks, Ashdown, Casie and Tanner Young, Ashdown, and Fisher Moon, Texarkana. Two great

“ I thought alot of Joan. Even tho we didn't see each other much after graduation, until our 50th class reunion, I always enjoyed talking to her and the fond memories we had. She was such a wonderful person, beautiful, talented and so thoughtful. I will miss her.
