“ I've often been told that somewhere, sometime in your life, someone is looking up to you. Joe was that person for David. He set the bar high, and as a couple, the two of you were the role model for the two of us. It was good to have Joe in our corner, and to know that we were doing something right! We are crushed with this loss, but our faith and belief that he is gone for just a moment and he will be there to greet us again one day soon is a great comfort. we are always here for you, we will keep you in our hearts and prayers .Love, David & Julie.
