“ my uncle lee was the best thing i ever had in my life he taught me so many good life lessons to grow off of. he's everything you could ever wish for in an uncle i swear. one funny story that happened is that one year i was laying in the snow and my dad told me to get up but i didnt listen and lee came out and picked me up by the back of my jacket and i just looked at him and said " Wow your strong" that's still the funniest story. we tell it alot

“ To call Lee a special person and friend is not enough. Once you were loved by Lee it never stopped. I thank God we stayed friends and he still considered me someone he could turn to. That's an honor. I've still never met anyone with a smile so contagious or a heart so big. Thank God for memories...and teaching me how to love. You will be missed.
