“ Judy, it gives me great solace that I know you can hear me. From the first time i met you in school in Texarkana. we had a special bond. We shared some of the same obstacles, comforted each other through them and as we overcame them. We shared some of the same sadnesses and the same joys. We laughed and had such fun, in and out of school. You were as close to a best friend as i ever had, as close to a sister as i ever had. When i moved to Ashdown from Texarkana, having you there sent such a wave of relief and excitement over me knowing an old friend and confidant was and would be there. We connected right away. we did community things together, family things together, and had such long long talks. Chase, your mom and dad were SOOO happy to have the gift of you from God. i don't believe i have ever seen Judy so happy as then. i've written to you before about that pic of you when you were a baby, sitting in that tin washtub. Judy would stand and stare at that picture on the wall, with this mona lisa smile on her face and just be in her own world of adoration for this child whose picture was on the wall. I was out of town until Saturday and just read about your leaving us, Judy. On the 21st in my hotel room, I was lying on the bed resting. there was a moment I was jerked out of my light sleep to a sitting position causing me to call out. i could see tall blue flames with the slightest flickers of white and gold high upon an armoire in my room. i don't know how long it was there, maybe a second, maybe a minute, maybe more. Then, it was gone. i know now it was our twin flame, it was you. I will never erase our last private messages on Facebook. Thank you for being in my life. You made it so much easier and happier. love you, my forever friend, billie

“ Judy was such a wonderful, sweet, witty friend..... She will always remain in my heart. Some of the stories she told will never be forgotten. I will miss her more than you know. My thoughts are for her family as you grieve this wonderful lady as I know she loved you so. May the Lord wrap His loving arms around you and give you a peace that passes all understanding.

“ I will miss Judy's beautiful smile and wonderful sense of humor. She was beautiful inside and out. The last time I saw Judy was at the hospital. I brought her a teddy bear as she was having trouble seeing. She hugged that little bear as we sat and visited. She talked so highly of her son and was so proud of her grandson. I went to High School with Judy. She was the same sweet and lovable girl in that hospital room, as she was in school. She will be greatly missed.

“ I've known Ms Judy all my life. She was my very first babysitter when my mom had to go back to work. She always told me stories of those days and I loved hearing them. As I grew up, I always loved seeing Ms Judy because she was always smiling and that smile was contagious. She talked about her family a lot and she loved them dearly. My thoughts and prayers are with you Chase and your family. She will truly be missed by all that knew her.
