“ To my first best friend,

We grew up together like sisters, sharing every milestone and experiencing so many firsts side by side—our first boyfriends, our first cars, our first reckless sips of freedom. Together, we navigated countless fun times and heartbreaks. In so many ways, we raised each other.

Even when life took us down separate paths, you were always with me—in my thoughts and in my heart. The innocence, the laughter, the secrets, the adventures—they remain as vivid as ever, and I carry them with me. I know you always did too.

Rest easy, my beautiful friend. You will always be a part of me.

“ You will always be that annoying little middle schooler trying successfully to drive Shelia and I nuts during sleepovers. Please give Billy Wayne and Kathy big hugs for me. Rest easy.

“ We went to Hicks Baptist Church together. She was the little sister running around when Shelia & I were outside playing or trying to get a tan on the trampoline. So sorry for your loss! ❤️
