“ Wow, I have so many fond memories of the time my brother Stanley and I spent, growing up with our "bonus" family (especially Kenneth)! I remember us singing in the choir of St. Mathews Church with Deacon Brown, choir director. Kenneth led his favorite song "His Yoke is Easy!" He would tear the church house down! Rest in Heaven my brother!

Kenneth Dixon had a beautiful personality. I met him approximately 10 years ago and also met his mother as well as his friend Jesse who was a police officer too. Rest in Heaven my friend! You will truly be missed.

*To The Dixon Family:
We are on this earth for a short period of time. When our time is up, we must go. How sweet it is to go to a home that has been prepared for us, not by man but our God. Kenneth and I were classmates from Elementary school to Highschool. He, along with four other classmates, always managed to get together whenever I came home every year. It was always a pleasure to sit down and chat with "Sarge". I will miss my classmate and Friend. May his soul rest in peace with God forever.*
