“ So very sorry to hear about Kerry Ann's passing. I knew she wasn't doing well, didn't expect it to end this soon. She was a sweet lady and ALWAYS carried on with me. Her husband Shorty was one of my best buddies during our years together at the mill. I pretty well knew the entire family from the time they moved to Ashdown. My condolences to the sons as I will be out of town and can't attend any of the services. Thinking bout you guys, Snuffy and Shorty. She will always be remembered!!!

“ It is always a sad time when we lose our loved ones. Kerry (Granny) will be missed greatly by all, but I know that she was tired and ready to go home and see her family that had already gone before her.
The good news is we will see her again in a place called Heaven.

We are praying for you all
