“ We were classmates since my dad moved us to Ashdown in 1978. I was upset one day at school because I had very curly unruly hair and Kim stepped up and offered to help me. She taught me how to brush it all up to the top and put it in a ponytail then separate and pin with bobby pins all around. I had a cute blonde donut on top of my head! I never forgot her kindness and we remained friends. To this day I think of her every time I put my hair up or one of my grand daughters. That little gesture of kindness changed me forever. RIP my sweet friend. I'm praying for your family and friends .

“ Kerry and sweet family you are in my prayers. I will always cherish my friendship with Kim, her bubbly personality lifted the hearts of all who knew her. I know she is celebrating with Jesus. I will always remember the day we were both baptized at Central Baptist Church and growing up in Sunbeams together. Rest In Peace my sweet friend.

“ We are so sorry for your loss and will keep you in our thoughts. She was one of a kind, I remember her voice carrying across the softball field to cheer you on and she even gave me a few pep-talks to help pick me when I needed it over the years. She was an amazing lady!

“ Its with much sadness that I pen this note.
Roy and Amanda, I and so sorry for your loss, words seem so inadequate.
As you know she worked in the practice for many years and I can assure you... you were her pride and joy.
Praying for the both of you, for the days ahead will be difficult.

“ Kim was my neighbor for many years. I loved her & she loved me. Before she got sick, I would come home from work & Kim would have mowed, weedeatered & raked practically the whole street. She was funny & giving. I miss her, but I can say I know I will see her again. And she will be whole & healed & laughing with Jesus!
