“ 33 years of awesome friendship, reciprocal love, and thousands of all good memories with you, our buddy. Sitting around the fire, recalling hilarious memories, taking vacations together, building duck blinds, fishing tournaments, coffee on the front deck, playing guess the music artist and song name.....we did it all together. We lost you for this time we have remaining on earth, but know you will have a fire built and a bloody mary waiting for us when we join again in heaven. Our heart is broken and we are in deep sorrow now but we know you told us to rejoice when you leave. I remember you saying one morning that if today was your last day on earth, you would have no regrets, that you were a extremely happy man. God has built a place for you in his kingdom. We love you LC.
