“ We had such great times with Susan. A pure joy to be with. And such a wealth of knowledge about South Dakota. She made Sue and my visit to SD so much more enjoyable by telling us the best places to go. She even bought us a bag of popcorn to feed the donkeys. We called her every time something special happened (like when the buffalo was right by the side of the road and walked in front of the car when we came out of the Badlands. I was so excited, I was beating on my steering wheel. Sue and Susan were laughing so hard.) We had such wonderful times together with her and Janie in Biloxi, Branson and, of course, Ashdown. Susan was so caring and went out of her way to make sure we were comfortable and having a good time. The house was always so full of love and laughter. We will miss her so much. She was much more than a sister-in-law. She epitomized love, caring and hospitality. Much love, Dotty and Sue
