“ I was so sorry to here of Lois's passing, I didn't get all the details in time to make arrangements. Just know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers. The slide show brought back so many wonderful memories of your mom and dad. Your mom and dad are together again for eternity.Hope to see you soon.

*All my love,
Debbie*

“ I always remember so fondly coming to Ogden as a youngster and Aunt Lois' incredible hospitality. She always had the most amazing spreads including pies! I'll always remember Shackelford's Grocery and Aunt Lois and Uncle Carl always having the best bologna for sandwiches and ice cold YaHoo chocolate drink...still think of them fondly whenever I see it on the store shelves! Prayers for the Shackelford, Furlow, and Ward families in this time of hurt and loss. Lois was a lovely lady with an amazing heart and spirit and she will be greatly missed.

“ Aunt Lois is a wonderful person as is the whole family. I once tried to play a joke on her and it did not work out like I thought it would. When she got thru talking to me about that, I decided that I would not be playing any more jokes on Aunt Lois! Wish I could be there!
Love, Buddy
