“ My dear mother, the very first time I arrived on this earth, you were there waiting for me. With a soft kiss and a gentle hug, you welcomed me to this world, and into your family and called me your own. Your life certainly shaped mine with the every day decision to follow our Savior and God, to love your family, and to serve the community. With your love, care, teaching and understanding, you left us a much better place for time to come. You instilled in me to love everyone, and to respect all regardless of race or color. You were my defender until the end. Now you are gone from here, and I will miss you dearly, but you are now present with the Creator. Each day I ask the Lord to give you and dad a big hug for me and tell you I love you and miss you. Thank you for everything, my dear, sweet Mother, I will see you shortly.

“It is how we live that will determine how people feel as they stand staring at our names chiseled into the gravestones. It is how we live that will affect generations to come and countless people whose names we don't even know.” Mike Huckabee

“ You were a classy lady. You loved your family very much. You were a great mother. We will miss you dearly. We will meet again some day. Tell Dad and the rest of the family we love them and that we are looking forward to seeing them someday. We love you.
