“ *Joe Mack, my heart aches for you and your family as you grieve the the loss of your lovey wife, Lousidney. The sweet video you have posted gives an amazing picture of her life well lived. Your beautiful wedding pictures, the pictures of Lousidney cooking in your lovely home, precious family pictures, more pictures in your amazing garden, those with her adorable dogs, and on your wonderful porch, paint a beautiful picture of the life you shared together. I am so proud of my dear childhood friend who did so well for his sweet family. I know your loss is hard, but we are lot without hope, we know our Redeemer lives and our hope is in Him.
