“ Trisha, I am so sorry the loss of your parents. Your Mother looked so beautiful in her picture. The pictures of your parents portrayed a couple who made the world a better place while they were in it. Please let me know if I can do anything to assist you. I am holding you and your family in prayers.

“ I remember many, many times when your parents visited mom and dad before they died. I had the pleasure of knowing them several years and it saddens me they are gone. Time keeps slipping by. Your mom was one of my friends on Facebook and we used to visit at Sugar Hill (we sat right in front of them). They were so proud of their family! We will miss them!

“ We are so glad to have known Burt and Margaret. We hurt for all of you in the loss of them. However we rejoice that they are together forever with the Lord. What a awesome day this is for Burt and Margaret as they stand together around the throne of our Lord. So thankful for the gift of eternal life.
