“ I loved Marjorie! I grew up in her church, and raised my family there also. One time she and Nell were sitting in their car at the old Walmart "people watching." I had to run in for diapers and they asked if they could watch Austin (he was 1) while I ran in. I came out and he had the wipers going and horn blaring. They loved it, he loved it, and so did I. Another time, when Austin was probably 3 or 4, he ran through church and hit Marjorie on her butt. She thought it was so funny! I did not, I was so embarrassed! Lol. Marjorie was a precious person to me and my family. So many good memories through the years.

“ I can still see Nell Gunter and Marjorie cruising Ashdown in their twin cars! You could also find them sitting in the old Walmart parking lot checking everyone out.

We loved her so. She was always an encourager and so prim and proper. She even kept a bunch of teenage girls for my Disciple Now weekend years ago. Rest well, dear soul.
