“ So very shocked and sorry to hear about Marks passing. I enjoyed being around him at Game and Fish functions and the training center. He was a talented musician and a great guy. Please know that I will be praying for the entire family and knowing the one true GOD will comfort you during this time.

“ I'm so shocked and very sorry to hear of marks passing. We spent many hours together, with Michael and Lyle playing music when we were teenagers, we were all very close friends. It's ashamed how time steals from , but our fond memories last forever. We will be praying for the family.
