“ We are saddened to hear the loss of our friend Marty. Marty was a friend and good customer at The Place Outdoor Equipment in Nashville Ar. Marty was the best credit card sales man. He was always so helpful. Credit card tell- a -marketers would call and we would tell them "we go the best our there!" Marty would stay for hours talking. He had a passion for life, and all that is good. Marty was glad that Trump was back in office, we will miss his excitement. Marty was a good customer. He understood shopping at those businesses that helped his business! We just found out today about the loss of Marty when the funeral was happening. We pray for good memories to come to mind when you think of him. That one day the tears will becomes smiles when recalling the funny things he did and said! May you call on Christ Jesus to bring comfort and understanding. David and Kathy Taylor

“ Marty, I am crushed and in shock at the news of your passing. You and I have been best friends and brothers since the 2nd grade. I have cried buckets since I received the news last evening. You and I were there for so much of life. We made tree houses together, built our own throw together log cabin on our childhood ventures to Waterworks Lake. I literally have hundreds and hundreds of hilarious stories and memories from our times together! When we were young your mom transported us on many adventures in that old brown Ford LTD station wagon! You were a naturally funny person so you kept me laughing through my formative years. Then, as an adult, you came to Colorado to elk hunt with me. There, you came to know my kids and from that time on the mere mention of your name would bring smiles, laughter, and fun stories from the past! At this time, though I live in Nebraska, I am on a trip traveling to Arizona to a horse show with harsh winter storms dumping snow on us. I want to give hugs to all of your family. Your family has been my family while I was growing up. I don't know how your family is able to hold up. For me I simply cannot imagine this earth without my best bud Marty present.

I love you brother. I will look forward to seeing you again on the other side of the doorway you have just walked through. To Juanita I send all of my love, prayers, and respect. You have always been an incredibly kind and sweet soul.....a second mom to me. Annette, Debbie, Vic, Stevie, and Susanne, I've thought of you all often and will be praying for you now and in the days ahead.
