“ Such a good friend of many many years. One memory that brings a smile each time I think about it, is the Christmas we ask Marvin to play Santa for the kids. He knocked on the door that Christmas Eve and we had the kids answer it. Marvin, with much excitement, bounces in the house and says " Ho ho ho Y'all"! The kids all shouted "that's Marvin"! We laughed about that from that night on. We loved Marvin dearly and will miss his hugs and songs. Can't wait to see him again!!!

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Mr. Marvin...from a young child, young adult, and into adulthood. His smile and kindness will be in my heart forever, but the life of faith he lived will always be what I remember most. Every time I saw him he never forgot to tell me that he said a prayer for me each and every day. There's no doubt those prayers have served me well along my journey of life...and how fortunate I am now to have my very own guardian angel up in heaven. Mr. Marvin...you will be missed, but the love and kindness you shared with all of us will live on forever.

“ Philippians 2:5 says, "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus..." Jesus was the humble servant of His Father. And Marvin, as his Lord, was a true servant. He was multi-talented, and utilized those gifts to serve his Lord and his church. If a job needed to be done, Marvin was there. There are so many good things that can be said about this servant of the Lord: He was humble, compassionate, kind and loving. He was, in every sense of the word, a gentleman. He was my friend and brother. --Harold Walls
