“ I grew up with Mary in the great town of Ashdown. We were especially good friends in Junior High and High School. As often happens, we did not have much contact after high school graduation, but I would see her from time to time, and I seem to recall meeting Caleb once. Mary was a great friend with a big heart. She was also very smart and talented. And Mary was one of the funniest people I have ever met. She had a quick wit and was very creative. She could have the whole class laughing time and again. I remember in 10th grade, Mrs. Marchand would give me a ride home when Mary and I got back from the away football games. It was usually late at night or very early in the morning. One of Mary's youngest little sisters was always in the car, maybe it was Christy. To Mary's wonderful family, I am sorry for your loss. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Chad Trammell

“ Mary is my second oldest first cousin....we have so many memories of being at Nanny and PaPaws stirring up something to make them smile. Mary was a great 1st cousin that I looked up as a child. It was like yesterday we were at Nanny and PaPaws when she announced she was 12 yrs old and I remember thinking, “Wow! I can’t wait until I turn 12”. Mary was always smiling and making me laugh! She had a huge heart and man could she dance! When she heard music she could not help herself & bust a move. Mary is one of the smartest people I know. After Nanny’s funeral the priest came and ate with us and I sat down by Mary who was having an intense discussion with the priest about the Bible. It took me awhile to even figure out what they were talking about with such big words, places I couldn’t spell, and she leaned over to me and explained “It’s the Bible.” And she knew almost every word of it! Mary always amazed me with her wit and charm. Mary was full of Love, she loved the Lord and her only child Caleb was her life, along with her parents. She was so caring and always wanted everyone to be happy. At moms, on Christmas she was always the last one to leave. There are so many things about Mary that have inspired me through out my life and she was a Survivor not a victim. She will always have a special place in my heart, and her smile lives on through her handsome son, I love you Cuz and I already miss you! Please hug and kiss Nanny and PaPaw, your sister Michelle, and kick my sister Kim for leaving us so soon. We will meet again some day and we will Rejoice with the Lord together! It is not good goodbye, but see you later ❤️
